STRASBURGER

On the 18th of April, just as the day was closing, there passed away from this world to the spirits of "just men made perfect" Mr. Samuel Stamper Cammack. It is with deep regret that we record his departure into the Great Beyond. About a year ago he came to live on his son Robert's homestead. He came west on account of his health, and for about six months he seemed greatly improved, but with the advent of spring he failed rapidly and went to that Bourne from whence "no traveller e'er returns." His body was laid to rest on a beautiful knoll on the homestead of his son near Strasburger. He leaves a widow, a daughter, Miss Bessie and two sons, Forest and Robert J. Cammack, and many friends. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, April 21, 1912, by Rev. J. Porter. A fuller revelation of his life and character will be made known on the resurrection morn when "the day breaks and the shadows flee away."

It is to be hoped that the homesteaders for whom Judge Kinkaid is working so valiantly will encourage him in his battle for the three-year bill. In a race or a fight there are times when boosters will help to turn defeat into victory. A great battle is now going on in Washington whether Nesters must give five years of their life or three years for a title to their homestead. I think it is perfectly reasonable and right to say that most of us homesteaders would rather pay fifteen hundred dollars for something than pay twenty-five hundred dollars for the same thing. You know time is or should be equivalent to money. If you cannot give Kinkaid the glad hand, you can send him a kindly letter.

The Misses Ann and Katie Dowd returned to their homesteads near Strasburger from Chicago. Miss Mary, their sister, you remember, died in Chicago last winter.

"Speed the plow"—the disc—and harrow. This is the advice of a homesteader. You will be glad next fall if you heed the advice. Whatever work you do, do it well.

Our neighbors, Jack Lloyd and Thomas Moore, went to Wyoming. They are past masters at the art of shearing sheep.

Christian Endeavor Society held its initial meeting last Sabbath. Miss Lucy Pinkham is president. C. A. Starr, Mrs. Speer, John B. Strasburger and others made remarks. Next Sabbath the meeting will be led by Fred C. McMillan.

Rev. Porter will preach next Sunday at Strasburger.

Many people around Strasburger are plowing or disking for corn and small grain. Some will disc and then list their corn, or sow rye, oats or wheat.

We are sorry to hear of the death of an infant of Mr. and Mrs. Meersch. Death and resurrection are words standing for the same transaction. The death of the body the resurrection of the spirit. I met a saint once,—mark you— and in Chicago, think of that. As a homesteader now I don't meet many saints. I guess they don't thrive so far west. This saint, dear old Mother Cook, she is past ninety, said to me on a street car. "What-sover thy hand findeth to do, do it, with thy might; for there is no work nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest."

GOODE OLDE BOY.

E. B. Blaisdell is one of a number of new names added to The Herald's list of Alliance subscribers.

In buying a piano the rule holds good that "the best is the cheapest." A poor piano is dear at any price. Mrs. Ida M. Ross has the agency for this part of Nebraska for the best pianos made. 22-2-1249

The reception given the Young Men's Bible Club by the Girls' Four Square Club last Friday night was attended by a large number of young people. It was agreed that all had one of the best times that they had enjoyed for a long time, and they hope it will not be the last of such party.

Last Thursday the Alliance Meat Co. opened their shop at 206 Box Butte avenue, with C. E. Phillips, manager, and started out with a good trade. Cal Simpson, well known in Alliance as a first-class butcher, is acting as cutter. They start out right by ordering an ad in The Herald and a supply of job printing.

Investigate before you purchase a piano. Find out what experts who are not interested in the sale of pianos think of the different makes. You will find that those who know agree that there is no better instrument for the price than the Everett piano, sold by Mrs. Ida M. Ross. Other instruments sold by her are bargains at the prices asked. You will make a mistake if you buy a piano before investigating what she has to sell. 22-2-1249

The familiar countenance of C. H. Britton has been in evidence in Alliance and Box Butte county this week. He arrived last Saturday night from Puyallup, Wash., and has been spending the time since visiting among his many friends. He reports the Box Butte people in his part of Washington well and doing well. While he likes that state he still thinks a whole lot of Box Butte county and it would not surprise us if he should decide to make his home here again. Mr. Britton will leave today for Michigan, where he will visit among friends where he resided many years before coming to Nebraska. He will stop at Alliance on his return to Washington.

Majestic

THE RANGE REPUTATION!

In case of serious illness, you wouldn't call in any old doctor, but would get the best doctor you knew of, The Doctor with a Reputation, the doctor that has shown his worth by years of good honest service.

Then why buy any old range, when you can get The Great Majestic, The Range with a reputation—a reputation won by years of constant, honest and economical service.

The Majestic is made right—OF NON-BREAKABLE MALLEABLE IRON, and RUST-RESISTING CHARCOAL IRON. All parts of the Majestic are riveted together (not bolted) practically airtight—no cold enters range or hot air escapes, thus baking perfect with about half the fuel used in a range that is bolted and pasted together with stove putty.

The All-Copper Movable Reservoir on the Majestic is absolutely the only reservoir worthy of the name. It heats 15 gallons of water while breakfast is cooking, and when water boils it can be moved away from fire by simply shifting lever.

Call at our store and let us show you why the Majestic is absolutely the best range on the market.

Your neighbor has one—ask her. All styles and sizes.
